Kathleen Pendant

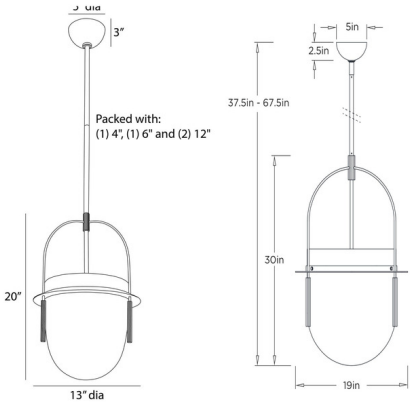

By Arteriors Home

Description

The Kathleen Pendant reinterprets the classic bell jar silhouette through a refined Neo-Classical lens. A frosted smoke glass shade is elegantly suspended from antique brass-plated steel, accented with finely ridged detailing that adds depth and character. Inspired by traditional counterweight mechanisms, its distinctive cup-and-pole composition creates a harmonious balance of form and function. The result is a sculptural statement piece that brings timeless sophistication and architectural presence to any interior.
