Dawning Table Lamp

By Currey & Company

Description

Like the sky in early morning over the sea, the Dawning Table Lamp features a serene gradation of blues punctuated by a warm, sunrise yellow. The textured surface is created when of layers of glaze crystallize during the firing process. No two will be alike because the crystal pattern that flows up from the bottom will be quite varied. A linen-cotton shade completes the look. 3-Way switch on socket.

Shown in blue / eggshell linen
