Atria Wall Sconce By Corbett Lighting

Description

The Atria Wall Sconce brings softness to geometry through a refined play of form and finish. Finished entirely in Vintage Brass, its gently rounded pyramidal silhouette recalls the shape of a seashellorganic, grounded, and elegantly understated. Striking in its simplicity, Atria casts a warm, ambient glow across the wall, offering sculptural presence without visual weight. Atria adds a quiet impact to interiors that call for subtlety and material richness.
