Introvert Chair

By Moooi

Description

Marking his first foray into furniture design, the Introvert Chair is a collaborative effort between Moooi and singer-songwriter turned visual-artist and designer Robbie Williams. While Williams is known for his extroverted stage presence while performing, the Introvert Chair reflects his inner world outside of the spotlight. Introvert's curved back and arms wrap the sitter in a comfortable embrace to capture the feeling of slipping away into stillness and solitude. Generous padding and a soft, tactile fabric complement the chair's welcoming silhouette, ensuring a supreme sense of comfort and calm.
