Column Table

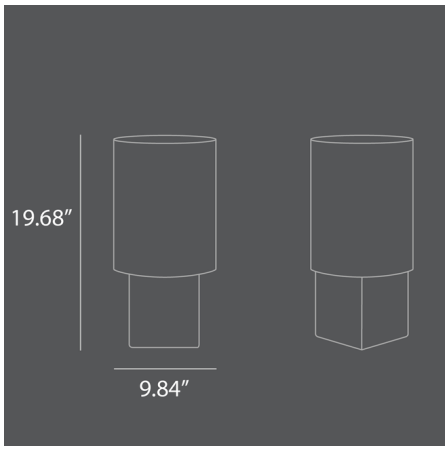

By 101 Copenhagen

Description

With its geometric and sharp lines, the Column Table is inspired by the classic architectural shapes of columns and pillars, with the attempt to create a simple and flexible side table. The Column Table is small and can therefore be used in many different interior schemes. The table fits perfect next to a lounge chair or combined with other side tables next to a sofa or lounge area. Due to its minimalistic design the Column Table can also stand alone as a sculpture by itself or be used as a pedestal for exhibiting objects.
