Exeter Boat Shaped Stone Top Dining Table

By Copeland Furniture

Description

Blending modern aesthetics with natural inspiration, the Exeter Boat Shaped Dining Table is a striking addition to any space. Whether for everyday use or as a conversation piece at lively gatherings, Exeter will elevate your living environment. The Exeter Dining Room is crafted in solid American hardwood, and completed with a sintered stone top in Macchia Vecchia or Sahara Noir. Manufactured through a high-tech process subjecting natural minerals to extreme heat and pressure, sintered stone achieves a level of strength and resilience that other surface materials struggle to match. The table top is impact resistant, non-porous, heat resistant, and environmentally friendly.

Shown in natural cherry / macchia vecchia
