Reservoir Pendant

By Jamie Young Company

(65)

Description

Light and airy, the Reservoir Pendant's composition is simple: a single hand-blown glass shade, warm antiqued brass, and plenty of style. The minimalistic aesthetic gets maximum impact when you hang them in multiples, in a line over a kitchen island, or in various lengths over a dining table. As always in designs this simple, the craftsmanship is on full display. Each of ours is artisan made and hand blown, and no two will be identical.
