Star Magnolia Wall Sconce

By Currey & Company

Description

Like a wild spring bouquet, the Star Magnolia Wall Sconce is full of delicate, organic charm. Metal branches are covered in an antique brass finish and bound together before flowing upward and outward. Soft white glass petals are set in brass leaf bobeches and glow when illuminated. The smaller leaves fluttering from the branches are made of pressed glass, each of them handmade. Portions of the metal have been hand-hammered to add subtle texture to surfaces.
