Florence Dining Table

By Eichholtz

Description

Designed in collaboration with the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Florence Dining Table takes its inspiration from a marble-and-stone column shaft from the 12th-century Benedictine monastery of Saint-Michel-de-Cuxa. Reimagined in silver travertine, this sculptural piece echoes the quiet strength of medieval design. Its sleek profile and bold base create a sense of grounded elegance, making it a timeless centerpiece for modern living spaces.
