Shiro Alta 120V Outdoor Bollard

By Santa & Cole

Description

The Shiro 120V Outdoor Bollard takes its name from the Japanese word for white, which symbolizes emptiness, honor, purity, and calm. The lamp echoes these principles with its rational, refined structure: a cubic shape that filters light through its slatted sides set atop an open, rectangular base. Shiro produces a soft, grazing light that will create a calming, balanced atmosphere.
