Bellecour Chandelier By Visual Comfort Studio

Description

The Bellecour Chandelier by Christiane Lemieux expands the collection's architectural elegance into a commanding scale. Its luminous architecture of air, crystal, and metal recalls the grand lighting of 1930s Parisian salons, while honed crystal beadshand-strung for precision create a diffused, candle-like radiance. This chandelier becomes a focal point for dining rooms or open living spaces, where its vintage gilded frame and sculptural glow introduce warmth and quiet sophistication. Bellecour elevates atmosphere with restraint and grace, pairing beautifully with natural materials for interiors that embrace soft light.
