Cleor Bathroom Vanity Light

By Visual Comfort Studio

Description

The Cleor Bathroom Vanity Light by Christiane Lemieux reinterprets the collection's sculptural elegance at an architectural scale. Its rectangular faux alabaster panel recalls the material poetry of French interwar design, diffusing light with a soft, ambient glow. The fixture balances warmth with industrial refinement, creating a composition that feels both modern and timeless. Hand-finished metalwork introduces subtle patina variation, ensuring each piece gains character over time. Cleor transforms functional light into a sculptural elementan illuminated gesture of proportion and restraint.
