Solene Chandelier

By Visual Comfort Studio

Description

The Solene Chandelier by Christiane Lemieux is a meditation on balance and luminosity, inspired by the sensual minimalism of Jean Royre and the precision of Jacques Adnet. Its tiered, domed silhouette recalls the modernist forms of 1930s Parisian salons, while the hand-finished interior reflects light with subtle warmth evoking candlelit evenings and salon gatherings. This chandelier commands a room with quiet grandeur, diffusing light downward and outward in a layered glow that feels architectural yet intimate. Designed to complement natural materials like linen, travertine, and oak, Solene transforms lighting into sculpture.
