Kea Rug

By Toulemonde Bochart

Description

The Kea Rug draws inspiration from Cycladic architecture to create this strikingly modern , hand-tufted, multi-colored wool rug . This design by Toulemonde Bochart studio captures the essence of Mediterranean Greece in a sophisticated, contemporary interpretation. The geometric approach developed for this piece is directly inspired by the architectural lines of the Greek islands. Each colored segment is positioned according to a precise mathematical logic, creating the impression of controlled irregularity so characteristic of the Cycladic style. The sunny palette naturally evokes whitewashed facades and azure skies.
