Eclisse Rug

By Toulemonde Bochart

Description

Inspired by the weaving of split rattan, this Eclisse Rug plays with the illusion of layered construction. The lines interlace, intersect, and echo one another like a living framework. The combination of loops and velvets, crafted in handtufting, enhances the sense of depth and texture, making this structured design feel almost tangible. clisse celebrates artisanal geometry, standing at the crossroads between textile tradition and decorative modernity.
