Aro Color-Select Ring Chandelier By Generation Lighting

Description

The Aro Color-Select Chandelier presents a sleek, modern interpretation of minimal lighting. Its low-profile metal frame casts soft up-and-down light through a smooth silicone diffuser, creating balanced illumination with an architectural edge. Each fixture features selectable color temperature (2700K/3000K/3500K/4000K/5000K) for adaptable use across residential and commercial spaces.
