Stretch Pendant By Nova of California

Description

The Stretch Pendant is a modern lighting fixture designed by the NOVA Design Team in 2026, featuring a sleek finish and a linen drum shade. This pendant light embodies precision elegance with its minimalist silhouette, making it an ideal choice for contemporary spaces such as dining rooms, kitchens, and living areas. The handcrafted hardback fabric shade ensures a glare-free ambiance, while the ultra-slim suspension and compact canopy add to its modern appeal. Equipped with a dimmable feature, the Stretch Pendant offers versatile lighting options to suit various moods and settings. Note: Not all options are available
