Elona Chandelier

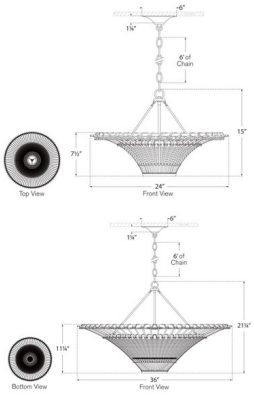

By Visual Comfort Signature

Description

The Elona Chandelier introduces a sculptural silhouette inspired by the artistry of traditional basket weaving. Its open lattice design filters light beautifully, casting soft, intricate shadows throughout the space. Suspended from slender rods and a delicate brass-link chain, the piece evokes the effortless sophistication of 1970s rattan and brass interiors, reimagined with a refined contemporary sensibility.Note: Rattan is a natural material, variations in color and tones make each piece unique.

Shown in hand-rubbed antique brass / natural wicker
