Wrangle Adjustable Wall Sconce

By Arteriors Home

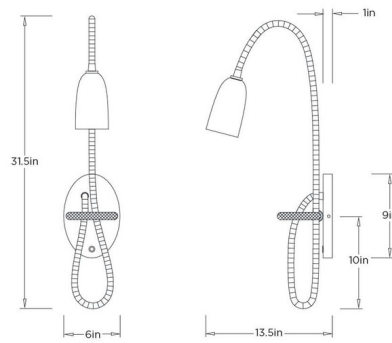

Description

The Wrangler Wall Sconce pairs exceptional versatility with a refined industrial aesthetic. Its fully adjustable arm moves effortlessly in every direction while maintaining its position, allowing for both functional task lighting and sculptural expression. Ideal for bedside applications, the adaptable design offers personalized illumination exactly where it is needed. Crafted from iron and accented with a leather-wrapped support ring, Wrangler balances durable construction with thoughtful detailing. A warm bronze finish enhances its understated appeal, serving as a versatile neutral that complements a wide range of interiors. On/Off switch is located on the backplate.
