Arcus Tray

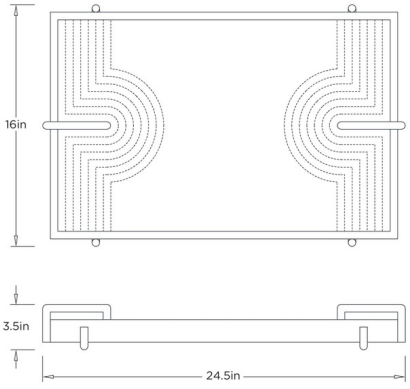

By Arteriors Home

Description

The Arcus Tray draws inspiration from the timeless rhythm of classical arches, reinterpreting architectural symmetry through a refined contemporary lens. Delicate stitched detailing traces the surface, echoing the graceful repetition of arched forms and creating a subtle sense of structure and movement. Wrapped in supple leather, the tray showcases a rich, saturated finish and an inviting tactile quality. Elegant yet understated, it brings depth, texture, and a sophisticated architectural presence to any tabletop.
