Travertini Accent Table

By Uttermost

Description

The Travertini Accent Table blends a heavily antiqued brass-finished metal frame with premium travertine stone, creating a distinctive three-tiered design that adds dimension and character to any space. Its layered surfaces provide functional display areas for books, decor, or everyday essentials like your morning coffee. Due to the natural qualities of travertine, each piece features unique variations in color, texture, and veining.
