Winter Harvest Tray Set of 2

By Currey & Company

Description

The Winter Harvest Tray Set includes two decorative wooden trays wrapped in hand dyed straw in an array of rich blue hues. Expertly applied by hand, the straw creates striking geometric patterns across the tray bases and extends along the interior and exterior sides, where it adds depth and tactile texture. The result is a beautifully crafted set that is both functional and visually distinctive. Because each tray is handcrafted using natural materials, slight variations in color and pattern make every piece uniquely its own.
