Herons On Branch Sculpture

By Currey & Company

Description

The Herons on Branch Sculpture captures the tranquil beauty of the graceful birds often seen in traditional Japanese gardens. Meticulously detailed, each heron features lifelike open beaks, slender legs, and delicately sculpted head, neck, and wing feathers that appear to flutter in a gentle breeze. Perched atop a remarkably realistic driftwood branch, this elegant sculpture brings a serene, nature-inspired presence and exceptional artistry to any interior.
