Glasshouse Tole Box

By Currey & Company

Description

The Glasshouse Tole Box is expertly crafted from wood in a distinctive octagonal silhouette, combining classic form with decorative artistry. Its black surface is embellished with hand-painted floral motifs layered in luminous shades of gold, creating a striking contrast and timeless appeal. A petite button style knob adds a functional touch while enhancing the box's refined character. With its handcrafted finish and Americana-inspired aesthetic, this decorative accent brings warmth and vintage elegance to any space. Due to the artisanal nature of the design, subtle variations in the surface may occur, making each piece unique.
