Duck Family Sculpture

By Currey & Company

Description

The Duck Family Bronze Sculpture is inspired by a work at the Art Institute of Chicago that reinterprets an ancient Chinese bronze. Finished in a rich antique green patina, the design portrays a mother duck accompanied by her duckling, symbolizing care and companionship. Intricate cutout patterns embellish their forms, introducing a contemporary element that complements the sculpture's timeless silhouette. Blending historic inspiration with modern artistry, this distinctive bronze piece makes an elegant decorative accent for a variety of interiors.
