Ancient Ram Sculpture

By Currey & Company

Description

The Ancient Ram Sculpture offers a contemporary interpretation of the enduring symbol of strength and resilience. Crafted from beige composite with contrasting black hooves, the sculpture features a boldly stylized head, where the face and ears form a distinctive T shaped silhouette with sharp angles and gracefully curved edges. Textural carving across the body evokes the appearance of woolly fleece, creating a striking balance between abstract form and natural inspiration. Finished by hand, each sculpture exhibits subtle variations in color and surface texture, making every piece uniquely individual.
