Fire Coral Sculpture

By Currey & Company

Description

The Fire Coral Sculpture captures the striking beauty of natural coral with remarkable realism, creating the illusion of a specimen gathered from the ocean floor. Expertly crafted from composite and hand finished for an authentic appearance, it rests atop a clear acrylic base that lends the design a light, airy presence. Inspired by the sea, this vibrant decorative accent brings organic color and coastal character to seaside homes or any interior seeking a touch of nature. Due to its artisanal finish, subtle variations in color and surface detail make each piece uniquely its own.
