Zanni Sculpture

By Currey & Company

Description

The Zanni Sculpture captures the playful spirit of a dancing harlequin in an artful composite design. Her black costume is adorned with an elegant swirling pattern that evokes cascading strands of pearls, while her face and hands are finished in natural flesh tones for striking contrast. Intricate details, including a fitted bustier, flounced sleeves, and a dramatic headdress, bring movement and theatrical flair to the figure. Elevated on a stacked black marble base, the sculpture gains a sense of presence and sophistication that beautifully balances its whimsical form. As each piece is artisan crafted, subtle variations in the surface finish make every sculpture uniquely individual.
