Coral Branches Set of 3

By Currey & Company

Description

The Coral Branches Set captures the intricate beauty of ocean coral with remarkable realism, creating the illusion that each piece was gathered from the sea. Although the sculptures appear to rest on stacked wood bases, both the coral forms and their bases are crafted from composite. Their lifelike character is the result of exceptional artisan craftsmanship from the mold maker, who shapes each intricate form, to the painter, who hand-finishes every piece to recreate the rich texture and natural coloration of genuine coral.
