Sulawasi Shells

By Currey & Company

Description

The Sulawasi Shells decorative accessory is handcrafted from stoneware by women artisans living along the border of Burma and Thailand. Inspired by the rare corals and shells found along the shores of distant tropical paradises, including Sulawesi Island near Java, this sculptural piece reflects the artisans' ability to transform natural forms into works of art. Finished in an antiqued white surface, the decorative sculpture captures the beauty of these native marine treasures and brings their organic elegance into the home.
