Winter Harvest Box

By Currey & Company

Description

The Winter Harvest Box is expertly crafted from wood and wrapped in hand-dyed straw in a range of rich blue hues. The woven straw is meticulously arranged across the lid in a dynamic pattern, creating a distinctive sense of texture and movement. A hinged lid opens to reveal a sleek black interior, while a soft suede base helps protect delicate surfaces. Due to the handcrafted nature of the materials and construction, each box features subtle variations that enhance its unique artisanal character.
