Soloma Rechargeable Table Lamp

By Troy Lighting

DAMP

Description

A play on Toni Morrison's novel Song of Solomon, the Soloma Rechargeable Table Lamp embodies the diverse potential of a single material. Crafted entirely from ceramic, this sculptural table lamp features a distinctive dome-shaped shade with an irregular edge. Inspired by her spirituality, Nash desired a sacredness to this lamp's design. Its sculptural simplicity exudes a quiet power. Battery life up to 15 hours. Touch dimmer located near base. Note: Due to the one-of-a-kind nature of the medium, exact colors and patterns may vary slightly from the image shown.
