Acton Table Lamp

By Troy Lighting

Description

Inspired by classical vessel forms, the Acton Table Lamp reimagines an amphora through a modern, material-driven lens. Twin looped handles frame a rounded silhouette, while the weathered Ceramic Kiln Ash finish adds timeworn character. Topped with a clean, tapered off-white linen shade and finished with Vintage Gold Leaf hardware, the overall effect is warm and endearing. On/off switch located on socket. Note: Due to the one-of-a-kind nature of the medium, exact colors and patterns may vary slightly from the image shown.

Shown in kiln ash / off white
