Eos Chandelier

By Bert Frank

Description

The Eos Chandelier will create a dramatic focal point in any interior with its sculptural aesthetic. Inspired by mid-century sputnik designs, Eos features thirteen alabaster globes supported by branching arms and cradled by brass domes for softly diffused lighting in all directions. The pairing of natural alabaster and machined brass emphasizes the materiality of the fixture with rich textures. Note: The downrod is not field adjustable and the overall height from the ceiling to the lowest point of the chandelier must be specified at the time of order (up to 60 inches).

Shown in brushed brass / alabaster
