Stretch 18 inch Ceiling Light

By Nova of California

Description

The Stretch Flush Mount is a sophisticated lighting solution that combines a sleek steel body with a white linen drum shade, offering a contemporary aesthetic that complements any modern interior. Designed to provide overhead illumination without the need for ceiling installation, this Flush Mount is perfect for creating a statement in living rooms, bedrooms, or home offices. The substantial steel base ensures stability, while the handcrafted construction highlights NOVA of California's century-long dedication to quality craftsmanship. The lamp's generous reach and ambient light diffusion make it ideal for reading or relaxed conversation, enhancing the atmosphere of any space.
