Gaia LED Ceiling Fandelier

By Savoy House

Description

The Savoy House Gaia Fan D'Lier brings breezy elegance and natural texture into harmony. Designed by award-winning interior designer and TV host Breegan Jane, it showcases beautifully woven seagrass that softens the silhouette and adds handcrafted warmth. The finish enhances its glow, offering a light and earthy sophistication ideal for relaxed yet refined interiors. A whisper-quiet DC motor circulates air and the included remote keeps convenience close at hand. Exclusive to Savoy House, Fan D'Liers elevate comfort and style by merging the beauty of a chandelier with the cooling convenience of a ceiling fan.
