Tierra Brisa Wall Sconce

By Savoy House

Description

The Savoy House Tierra Brisa 2-light sconce was designed by award-winning interior designer and TV host Breegan Jane. In Spanish, tierra brisa describes the phenomenon of a pleasant breeze that blows off the land and out to sea. This sconce has a softly arched form and a shade crafted from woven natural dark water hyacinth, a sustainable organic material that catches the eye and creates effortless serenity. A Riviera Brass finish adds an extra touch of bold style.
