Auden Bathroom Vanity Light By Z-Lite

Description

The Auden series offers a flirty, feminine touch with a scalloped bottom edge that evokes the movement of a flounced skirt, bringing a sense of carefree lightness to the glass shades. Above a bathroom mirror, this vanity light brings a polished balance of clear glass and softly gleaming metal. The textured shades add sparkle as they frame the light, giving the vanity area a refreshed quality that feels elegant during hurried mornings and late evenings alike. Its paired arrangement suits powder rooms and baths where classic detail can feel graceful, bright, and newly inviting.
