Romeo Moon S1 Pendant By FLOS

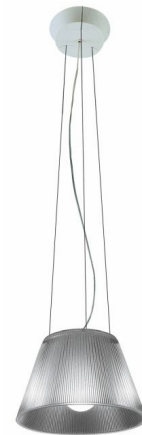

Description

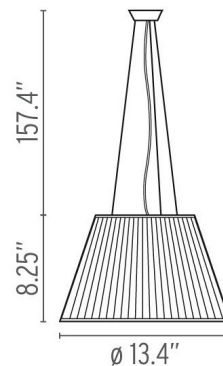

Designed by the visionary Philippe Starck, the Flos Romeo Moon S1 Pendant offers a timeless blend of classic elegance and modern simplicity. This exquisite fixture provides a beautifully diffused light, suspended gracefully by three fine steel cables. Its finely fluted, molded glass lampshade is complemented by an etched internal white glass diffuser, ensuring a soft, even glow that enhances any interior. A transparent, stamped polycarbonate dust protection screen adds a touch of thoughtful design and functionality. Perfect for: Dining rooms, kitchen islands, or living spaces where you desire a refined and ambient light source. Why you'll love it: Philippe Starck Design: Own a piece of design history with this iconic pendant from a renowned master. Soft, Diffused Light: The combination of molded glass and etched diffuser creates a warm, inviting ambiance. Versatile Style: Seamlessly integrates into both contemporary and transitional settings, offering adaptable illumination. Quality Materials: Crafted with durable glass and steel, promising enduring beauty and performance.
