Textile Porcelain Vase

By Jamie Young Company

Description

The Textile Porcelain Vase brings effortless elegance and organic texture to any space. Strips of textured porcelain in soft, neutral tones are carefully coiled and compressed by hand, creating a richly layered surface with a subtly raw finish. Each vase is individually formed, making every piece uniquely one of a kind. Designed for decorative use, the vase offers endless styling possibilities. Fill it with dried or faux botanicals, or pair it with natural elements such as wood and reeds to create an earthy, sophisticated accent.
