Pinpoint Ceramic Vase

By Jamie Young Company

Description

The Pinpoint Ceramic Vase is a playful, fashion forward vessel and a true handcrafted work of art. Its softly undulating silhouette is defined by generous curves, a wide mouth, and a slender base, all formed from richly textured ceramic. The distinctive finish is embellished with dozens of hand applied white dots, each organically shaped to create a one of a kind pattern. No two are exactly alike, making every piece uniquely its own. Water safe, this vase can be filled with fresh flowers or left empty. Pair it with decorative objects in a complementary palette to create a sophisticated, artful arrangement with plenty of personality.
