Scarab Seagrass Trays Set of 2

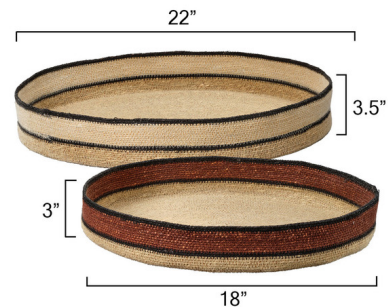

By Jamie Young Company

Description

The Scarab Seagrass Trays are expertly handwoven by skilled artisans using time-honored techniques passed down through generations. Beautifully versatile, the trays can be nested together, displayed individually, or hung as distinctive wall art. Woven primarily in the seagrass's natural hue, the larger tray features contrasting black rings, while the smaller tray is accented with a warm red band for added character and visual interest. Because they are crafted from natural fibers, each set has its own subtle variations in color, texture, and shape, making every piece unique.
