Elvador Dresser

By Eichholtz

Description

The Elvador Dresser celebrates the timeless craft of herringbone. This piece features a striking herringbone pattern in slatted washed oak veneer across each of the three door fronts. Behind each door sits an adjustable shelf, offering flexible storage for everything from tableware to linens. The doors open with a smooth push-to-open system, and adjustable hinges ensure a perfect fit for years to come. This Eichholtz dresser can be used as a sideboard in the dining room, a media cabinet in the living space, or an elegant hallway piece.
