Arbor Chandelier

By Jamie Young Company

Description

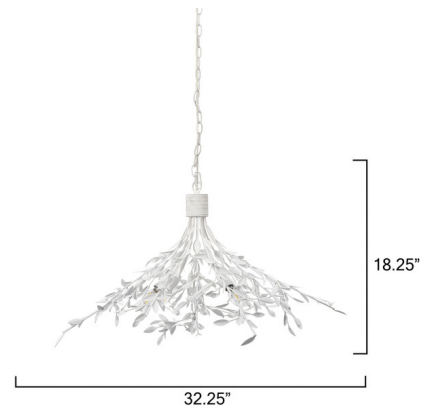

Bringing the tranquil beauty of a woodland canopy indoors, the Arbor Chandelier enchants residential spaces with dozens of delicate, hand-sculpted leaves. Its durable iron frame features a soft white plaster finish, and because the branches and leaves are completely bendable, you can shape your own one-of-a-kind organic display. Complete with an adjustable height and four warm lights hidden underneath, it casts an inviting, magical glow over dining tables and gathering spaces.
