Mod 265 Swing Arm Plug In Wall Lamp By FLOS

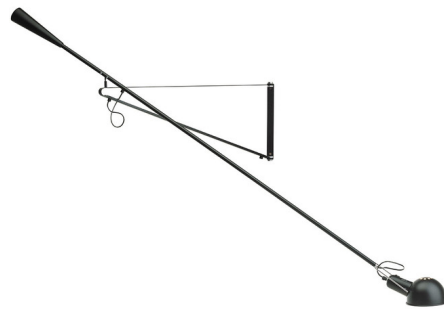

Description

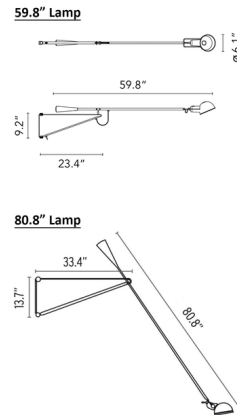

Experience a true feat of design with the Flos Mod 265 Swing Arm Plug In Wall Lamp, a captivating creation by Paolo Rizzatto. This iconic fixture, designed to seemingly defy gravity, extends far into your space, perfectly balanced on a minimal wall bracket. It delivers precise, direct lighting, which you can aim effortlessly thanks to its long pivoting arm and a lamp head that rotates a full 360 degrees. Constructed from painted steel with a distinctive cast iron counterweight, the Mod 265 maintains a sleek, industrial profile that seamlessly integrates into contemporary living rooms, dining areas, or bedrooms. The convenient on/off switch is located directly on the socket holder, and its plug-in design offers flexible installation. Perfect for: Reading nooks, workspaces, bedsides, or any area where adjustable task lighting and a striking design element are desired.
