Logico Micro Pendant

By Artemide

Description

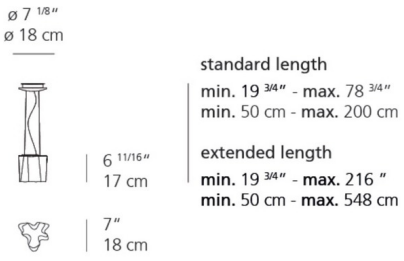

Discover refined illumination with the Logico Micro Pendant, a versatile and elegant lighting solution perfect for contemporary interiors. This compact yet impactful pendant features hand-blown glass with a satined crystal finish, meticulously designed to produce a beautifully diffused light that creates a serene ambiance. The diffuser is expertly supported by a die-cast aluminum frame in a chic pale grey finish, ensuring both durability and aesthetic appeal. Stainless steel supporting cables add a touch of modern sophistication, allowing the pendant to seamlessly integrate into various design schemes. Made in Italy, the Logico Micro Pendant is uniquely versatile, designed for deployment as a striking single unit or as part of an assembly of three units in either a nested or linear configuration, offering endless design possibilities. Available in two lengths, it provides flexibility for various ceiling heights and lighting requirements. Customers frequently highlight its subtle elegance and exceptional quality. Whether illuminating a kitchen island, bedside table, or creating a dynamic multi-pendant display, the Logico Micro Pendant offers a minimalist yet powerful statement in contemporary lighting.
