Tizio 35 Desk Lamp

By Artemide

Description

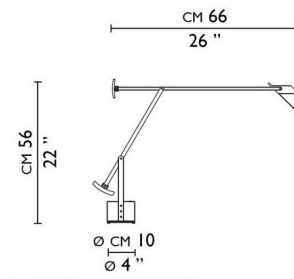

Redefine your workspace with the Tizio 35 Desk Lamp, a marvel of engineering and a beacon of contemporary design. This iconic fixture boasts fully adjustable arms and head, allowing for precise directional lighting to suit any task. The striking design features chromed steel arm spacer bars accented by vibrant red, molded thermoplastic insulators, adding a touch of bold sophistication. Counterweights crafted from zinc alloy, painted to match the finish color, ensure effortless balance and remarkable adjustability. The adjustable diffuser, made from molded thermoplastic, houses a high-efficiency inner reflector of anodized aluminum with UV bulb protective glass, guaranteeing optimal light output and eye comfort. A 360-degree rotatable base, also in molded thermoplastic, incorporates a low voltage transformer and a convenient two-intensity on/off switch, offering complete control at your fingertips. Standing 22 inches high, 25 5/8 inches wide, with a 39.25-inch overall height, this lamp delivers directional general light distribution, perfect for concentrated work. Powered by one 35 watt 12V GY6.35 halogen lamp (included), the Tizio 35 is celebrated by users for its unparalleled adjustability and sleek, architectural look, making it an indispensable tool for designers, architects, and anyone seeking superior task lighting.
