Logico Single Wall Light

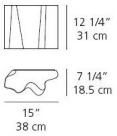

By Artemide

Description

Introduce a touch of organic elegance to your walls with the Logico Single Wall Light, a fixture that redefines how light interacts with space. This exquisite sconce features a hand-blown, organically shaped satin glass diffuser that creates a mesmerizing illusion, appearing to float effortlessly and casting a soft, inviting glow. Available in timeless Milky White, the glass is beautifully contrasted by a sturdy die-cast frame in a pale Grey finish, ensuring a sleek and integrated appearance against your wall. The Logico Single Wall Light is UL listed for safety and proudly made in Italy, a testament to its superior craftsmanship and enduring design. Customers frequently highlight its unique sculptural form and beautiful ambient light, praising its ability to add depth and sophistication to any room. Perfect for hallways, living rooms, bedrooms, or dining areas, this fixture offers an architectural and contemporary aesthetic, transforming your walls into canvases of light and shadow with its subtle yet impactful presence.
