Castore Table Lamp

By Artemide

Description

Illuminate your living space with the timeless elegance of the Castore Table Lamp, a captivating fixture that embodies modern sophistication and expert craftsmanship. This lamp features a exquisite white hand-blown glass diffuser with an etched outer finish, creating a beautifully soft and diffused light that transforms any room. The ingenious design includes a sleek steel tube stem gracefully covered by a translucent white polycarbonate tapered sleeve, allowing for a partial, gentle diffusion of light from the diffuser itself. The sturdy base is crafted from die-cast metal alloy with a pristine white epoxy powder finish, ensuring both durability and a clean, contemporary aesthetic. A convenient touch dimmer with a chrome finish is elegantly incorporated into the base, offering seamless control over your illumination. Available in three versatile sizes. The Castore provides a perfect fit for any tabletop. All sizes are UL listed for safety. Customers consistently praise its stunning diffused light and understated elegance, making it a beloved choice for living rooms, bedrooms, and entryways seeking a truly contemporary and refined lighting solution.
