Wallis Pendant

By Hudson Valley Lighting

Description

Experience a captivating interplay of light and form with the Wallis Pendant, a fixture that offers a truly unique perspective. This sophisticated pendant features layers of clear glass and metal rods in Polished Nickel or Aged Brass, meticulously arranged at staggered lengths within a classic drum shape. This creates a fascinating visual texture that feels both contemporary and familiar, while masterfully directing light vertically and diffusing it horizontally for comprehensive illumination. Available in three versatile sizes, the Wallis Pendant is an exceptional choice for adding striking task lighting over kitchen islands, illuminating dining tables with an artistic flair, or creating a sculptural focal point in entryways and living rooms. Its innovative design seamlessly integrates into contemporary interiors, offering a unique blend of visual intrigue and diffused brilliance.
